-The Latest Parisian Ideas and Golors in the Winter Girl's Shirt Waist.

rived at the same of elegance and beauty in a waist. The generic term shirt-black piping, had 10,000 orders in advance to be filled for winter wear. Of course, tastes and shapes. The stout woman may have a smart waist in one of the new sample and very chic—when properly applied.

Waist seems wholly out of place in connection with the dainty articles which the pattern of this waist has something to do with its popularity. It has a yoke stripes that mingle several colors on a white ground. The thin woman has a women don, to the envy and admiration of men to whom such charming attire and shoulders and front panel, all cut in one piece, and the cut is choice of a flower-like yoke effect, with shirred yoke and shoulders and front panel, all cut in one piece, and the cut is choice of a flower-like yoke effect, with shirred yoke and shoulders and front panel, all cut in one piece, and the cut is choice of a flower-like yoke effect. is forbidden. Men have the eavy and admiration of men to word on their merits and their such that the figure is outlined effectively, with a snug fit to the shoulders, and forbidden, while even the shirtwaists of a woman are so lovely that they add to drooping effect to the upper arm and a fulness about the bust. good looks, while even the shirtwaists of a woman are so lovely that they add to drooping effect to the upper arm and a fulness about the bust.

the attractions with which nature has endowed her.

Three materials gn as favorites for fall and winter shirtwaists—wool, in the French flanne and delicate mohair and mohair mixtures; silk, in new and waists American women wear may be gathered from the fact that one manu-Tich colors, and it was weaves of many exquisite varieties, from some resemfacturer in Greene street, this city, makes upward of 600 dozen shirtwaists a day demand that exists for the colors and styles of fine materials and in the most stylish patterns. This is the largest waist the fashions.

Graceful curved plaits and pointed panel effects are observable in the backs of the new walsts, while the tops of the sleeves are always fitting, and are often are very thick and warm and very handsome, and a linen or mercerized cotton affected, with a little sage green and cardinal red. Black waists will prove very

The charming models selected to illustrate this article are the latest Parislan veal the ideas and colors applied to American shirtwaists. Some idea of the number of makes. manufactory in America, and everythin; in it is done by machinery, even to parts and all join in the chorus—which, in this case, would be a cheerful one.

Women are pleased that the waists for this fall cater to their individual could not be obtained in any other way, and it is a trimming at once cheap, tastes and shapes. The stout woman may have a smart waist in one of the new simple and very chic—when properly applied.

the sewing on of the large, handsome enamelled buttons and the making of the sewing on of the large, handsome enamelled buttons and the making of the sewing on of the large, handsome enamelled buttons and the making of the button-holes.

The sewing on of the large, handsome enamelled buttons and the making of the button-holes.

Two Casing actresses posed in the photographs shown here—Miss Gend freeted, with a little sage green and cardinal red. Black waists will prove very mart; but, leading all in point of style, will be the white waist—in wool, silk yeal the lines of her graceful figure. The two-tab collars are popular upon all is also trimmed with a similar band, and, if this be red in tone, a red button, Rich plat's show a disposition to be fashionable, but these do not have the in the three buttons on the front of the waist.

The dainty finish which piping gives, with its touch of rich color, to an other- Miss Maude Alien in the three other waists.

Large buttons appear on all the smart waists, either as side or front fasten- trimmed with armiets of tucks, bands or plping, below which the sleeves become

Why Do Men Marry the Wrong Women?-- Prizes to Men for the Bes the Best Answers. physical beauty has pleasant and attractive. She must always be ready to she must stand fast to the malienable marriage law, enced for good by a man who possesses and sensibly and install a religious sentiment instead; to make hu

HE Even ag World offers these three prizes: $10 for the best description of the ideal wife written by an unmarried or married man; $10 for the best letter from a married man teiling how and why he selected the wrong woman for a wife; and $10 for the best letter from a bachelor explaining lucidly why men expect their wives and sisters to be paragons of all the graces and virtues and yet take sweethearts and wives who fall utterly to come up to this exalted standard.

waist of the new style will almost last forever.

The contest will close Thursday, Sept. 24, and prizes will be awarded Saturday, Sept. 26. Letters positively must not contain over 150 words and must be written on one side of the paper only. Eney should be addressed 'Harriet Hubbard Ayer, Evening World, Pulltzer Building,

BY HARRIET HUBBARD AYER.

broken and miserable hearts Good Description of a come hundreds of answers to the prize Evening World questhe flowers on the mountain side. It gives me pleasure to offer to-day for the consid-

Name thinks she does. It is a far cry from the "vision of adorable, tenderloving womanhood—modishly gowned— fastidious, beautiful, intelligent—educated," and a lot of other things to the ingenuous mortal whose ideal is his IF a wife will fear God, love her husband and make

Out of the peaceful depths en-for marrying in defiance of the standards set for of happy lives as well as mothers and sisters—enough to set every reader to from the inner recesses of thinking on these most-absorbing problems:

Really Truly Model Wife.

antly of the idolized wife of today who was the prettiest, sweetest girl of twenty years ago and whose possession has confirmed the choice of the young man who just married for pure love and wished to pre-empt the privilege of loving one girl in perpetuity.

Antly of the idolized wife of today who was the prettiest, day who was the pre advise and assist her husband whenever the same may "to cherish and obey" (mainly the "obey"). Of course, displays these qualities. Man's Ideal Woman undoubtedly varies even as be required, and comfort him when sick. She must in the flowers on the mountain side.

Let required, and comfort him when sick. She must in the flowers on the mountain side.

Let required, and comfort him when sick. She must in the flowers on the mountain side.

Always Beware of a Girl band be a besofted animal, usually entering the home band and have full confidence in his integrity. She at 2 A. M.—this has no bearing on the case; she should must also show respect for those outside of the house- welcome him invariably with carefully selected, lov- Dear Mrs. Ayer:

Let Her Keep the Home

things to the ingenuous mortal whose ideal is his friend's wife, a lady with the smiles that won't come off, always waiting when her husband returns with his affairs, be pleasant, never scoid nor find faut; off joy of joys!—"A pan of corn muffins and a custard that would make your mouth water."

But twixt these extremes there are described ideals But twixt these extremes there are described ideals and reasons advated for marrying the wrong wom-

The Paragon Among Wives

eration of all interested the views of a gentieman whose ideal is of the will-o'-the-wisp order. A won-hold, as only a selfish husband would require a wife to respect none but himself.

A. D., Highstown, N. J.

Buch a goddess as this really exists, or that Mr. No and the Children Chic. a seamstress, a musician, an artist, a lingu' a bookkeeper, a Venus de Milo; in short possess every virtue in the catalogue, an

MAN is susceptible to beauty in woman. This is very natural, but many men err in becoming enamored of her immediately because of the good looks and apparent charming percause of the good looks and apparent charming per-Must Be Many Things. sonality. To go deeper and study every whim and foible does not seem to be necessary. This all too Dear Mrs. Ayer: tions by each post telling of the success and also of the success and also of the success and also of the fatures of many marriages. Men who are happy write buoyantly of the ideal wife of the wrong with the ideal wife of the antity of the ideal wife of the success and happiness are absolute established antly of the ideal wife of the success and happiness are absolute established wife of the success and also of the first requisite in the ideal wife is faithfulness to the one whom she vowed to take for better or for worse. Peace and happiness are absolute established wife of the ideal wife is faithfulness to the one whom she vowed to take for better or for worse. Peace and happiness are absolute established wife of the ideal wife is faithfulness to the one whom she vowed to take for better or for worse. Peace and happiness are absolute established wife of the ideal wife is faithfulness to the one whom she vowed to take for better or for worse. Peace and happiness are absolute established wife of the ideal wife is faithfulness to the ideal woman, mainly the ideal woman, mainly of the ideal woman, mainly in the ideal woman, mainly of the ideal woman, mainly in the ide

When She Is "Just Cute."

True love begets the highest standard. He may be attracted to his sweetheart by her "no particular standards," in that case she does not appeal to his better nature. She may appeal to him through her beauty, dress, or "infant's intellect"—the last sort of girl dia life. Bachelors should not be censured too nard on in Selection Advocated manity gentle and honest. The letter of Mr. Brandon been married but four years, and he is but a child as yet with a woman who has not turned the curve in

Let Virtuous Women Choose Only Virtuous flen,

Dear Mrs. Ayer:

to make either married or single people happy, and that is to keep themselves continually in the peace of God. All who seek happiness otherwise are only seeking case from the misery that exists within. dress, or "infant's intellect"—the last sort of girl dia guises herself as cute; none of these is true tove. If he marries such a girl it may be because he mistakes the impression made upon him for love. Or he may think that if such a girl makes him happy in courtship the same characteristics will follow her into marries. for the Man to Do. the same characteristics will follow her into married burden is light." Let virtuous women choose virtuous nen and unhappy marriages will be very ra PEACEFUL MIND

The Love That Lies in the Wrong Woman's Eyes. Dear Mrs. Ayer:

THE reason that a young man marries the when she does not. The expression of love in

LORRAINE - By Robert W. Chambers. - A Story of Love and War. PIANOS $1

MADISON SQ. GARDEN. 2 Performances Daily,

Finited by Permission of Happer & Brothers.

Finited by Permission of CHAPTER.

Finite

Amusements.

MURRAY HILL THEATRE Lex. Av. & 42d st. Eve. 8.15. Mats. Td'y& Sat. "A great triumph for Harrigan."—Herald. EDWARD HARRIGAN " "UNDER COVER. PRICES Sat Mat. 250. to $1.50 Popular Wed. $1 WEBER & FIELDS' MUSIC POSITIVE TO MORROW EVENING. Seats now "WHOOP-DEE-DOO." BELASCOTHEAT RETO-night 8 sharp. BLANCHE BATES IN OF THE GODS. HERALD SQUARE THEATRE, Broadway JOHN DREW | CAPTAIN DIEPPE CRITERION THEATRE BWAY & tath S. CHARLES HAWIREY BLANKLEY'S. GARDEN THEATRE 27th st. & Mad. ave.
Stephen Phillips's DLYSSES.
Play GARRICK THEATRE. 15th st. & B Was. LAST 4 NIGHTS, 8.80. LAST SAT. MAT. JOHN C. RICE. Vivian's Papas. SAVOYTHEATRE. 84th st. & B'WAY.
BY 88, 8.80. Mat. Saturday.
LAST TWO WEEKS
MRS. LANGTRY MRS. DEPRING'S
DIVORCE. DALY'S At 8 sharp. Mat. Saturday, 2. 3 LITTLE MAIDS

Brooklyn Amusements. MALINES MONTAUK, MALINES GRACE GEORGE

COLUMBIA Mats. Thes. Thurs. Sat To-night—Wells. Dunne. THE MAN FROM MEXICO.